Places to Visit

Sinhgad

Sinhgad, Sinharh, or Sinhgad (The Lion's Fort), is a fortress located roughly 30 kilometres southwest of the city of Pune, India. Previously called Kondhana, the fort has been the site of many important battles, most notably the battle of Sinhgad in 1670. It was also strategically located at the centre of a string of other forts such as Rajgad, Purandar and Torna.

Aga Khan Palace

The Aga Khan Palace was built by Sultan Muhammed Shah Aga Khan III in 1892 as an act of charity to help the poor citizens drastically hit by famine in the neighbouring areas of Pune. The palace is closely linked to the Indian freedom movement as it served as a prison for Mahatma Gandhi, Kasturba Gandhi and Sarojini Naidu. It is also the place where Kasturba Gandhi and Mahadev Desai died. In 2003.

Shaniwar Wada

Shaniwarwada was built in 1746 and was the seat of the Peshwa rulers of the Maratha Empire until 1818 when the Peshwas surrendered to the British. The fort itself was largely destroyed in 1828 by an unexplained fire, but the surviving structures are now maintained as a tourist site.

Rajiv Gandhi Zoological Park

The Rajiv Gandhi Zoological Park is located in Katraj and is managed by the Pune Municipal Corporation. The 130-acre zoo is divided into 3 parts: an animal orphanage, a snake park, and a zoo, and includes a 42-acre lake (Katraj lake). Located in the heart of the city at the base of the Parvati hills, this zoo exhibited animals in traditional cages.

Raja Dinkar Kelkar Museum Parvati Hill

Parvati Hill is a hillock at 2,100 feet (640 m) with a Parvati Temple on top. The temple is the oldest heritage structure in Pune and was built under Nana Saheb Peshwa, in 1749. The hill has 103 steps and is the second highest point in Pune premises (after Vetal Hill). The main temple, Devdeveshwara, is made of blackstone.

Balaji Temple

Balaji Temple near Pune around 45 mins from Pune on Pune Bangalore Highway. Please cross toll booth and travel south 4KMs to Kapurvoh phata/junction. Take a left turn, the Balaji temple is just 4km. Also further travel to Narayanpur (another 8KMs thru winding beautiful ghat) to visit ekmukhi (one face) ShreeDutt temple and a nice Shivji temple very next)

Welcome...

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

We are delighted to welcome you to the 39th Annual Conference of the Maharashtra Chapter of Indian Association of Pathologists and Microbiologists (IAPM) which will be held at the Armed Forces Medical College, Pune from the 7th to 9th of September 2018.

We have devised a blend of standard formats and subjects with some more amazing approaches that we hope you will find stimulating and enjoyable. The MAPCON conference provides a unique opportunity to meet colleagues from many different horizons and backgrounds, exchange, compare and learn; it is also the ideal setting for exchanges between seniors and juniors, between old hands and the less experienced, both during scientific presentations and at the networking events.

Early September is usually a great time of the year in Pune, the historic and picturesque home of the Peshwas and the Oxford of the East.

Come and join us at Pune in September 2018, for an enriching, rewarding and truly special experience!
