Dr. Mobarak Ahemad Khan was born on 22nd February 1951 to Aftabuddin Khan and (Mrs.) Amatul Hai and was 3rd among his 6 siblings. He was born in village Kerang of Khurda District, Odisha.

He did his MBBS (1978) and MD (1989) both from VSS Medical College, Burla.

He was a Pathologist by profession and regarded as an excellent doctor among the medical fraternity where he worked and by the general public who gradually became aware of his acumen as a good Clinician. More than a Clinician/ Pathologist, he was regarded as a very good teacher by the students. And his students spoke highly of his method of teaching. He was popularly known Khan Sir among the students and one of his students who now works as a faculty in AIIMS Bhubaneswar quoted that “Khan Sir commanded a lot of respect from the Medical students as he taught so well”.

He was an excellent scholar during his school days and later on during his MBBS studies. He had a sharp memory and brilliant mind which enabled him to study and assimilate all the lessons of the class with comparatively less time involved than his peers but, his dedication and effort were unquestionable. From his childhood he was good at sports too. He had a knack for swimming and gradually he became a good swimmer and was a gold medalist too in swimming competition during his MBBS days.

He exuded a calm and humble demeanor and would engage in a friendly and sensible conversation with his colleagues and co-workers and he had a good general knowledge, which he used to help many who would be looking to get counsel on a certain matter.

Behind his retiring exterior lay hid a high resolve, strength, will power and a sublime determination and belief and trust in God, the Almighty. Through his actions and words, he taught to be humble, to be caring and be ever prepared to serve, the three major hallmarks of a good doctor. He was a good human being, a good husband and an excellent father.

Dr. M. A. Khan breathed his last at 9:26 AM on 17th April 2021 (Saturday). He is survived by his wife, his two sons, daughter-in-laws, a grandson and a granddaughter.

We pray for his noble soul to rest in eternal peace and heavenly abode and give strength to the bereaved family to bear the irreparable loss.
